

CYSTIC FIBROSIS Charity Lunch Friday 15 April 2011

8 Members of the British Racing Drivers' Club will be running the Virgin London Marathon on 17 April 2011 in support of the Cystic Fibrosis Trust.

Professional racing drivers Jamie Campbell-Walter, Peter Dumbreck, Stuart Hall, Jonny Kane, Robin Liddell, James Matthews, Andy Meyrick and Richard Westbrook have stepped up to the 26.2 mile challenge to raise funds and awareness for this extremely worthwhile charity.

Cystic Fibrosis is one of the UK's most common life-threatening inherited diseases. It affects over 8,500 youngsters, clogging vital organs with thick sticky mucus. Research into Cystic Fibrosis is at a critical stage and it is hoped that there may soon be a scientific breakthrough which will allow this condition to be something that young sufferers can live with, rather than die from.

The BRDC and Marathon Runners are hosting a Charity Lunch at Carpenters' Hall, London on Friday 15 April. There will be a host of top names from British Motorsport attending with TV Presenter and Cystic Fibrosis Patron Ben Shephard, comparing for the afternoon. A charity auction and silent auction will take place with the following fantastic prizes:

A week for two people at the Eden Rock Hotel in St Barths

A private tour of the Aston Martin factory

A flight in a WWII Harvard Warbird

A private tour of the McLaren Formula One team factory

Half a day in a Formula One Simulator

VIP Hospitality at the 2011 SANTANDER FORMULA ONE BRITISH GRAND PRIX

Unique F1 memorabilia and many more...

Tables of 10 are priced at £1,150 + VAT and individual tickets are also available at £115 + VAT p/p (BRDC Members tables will be made up of those buying individual tickets)

- Champagne reception
- 3 course lunch with coffee and petit fours
